Castelnau Community Centre

When you pop into the Centre in Stillingfleet Road one morning for a hot drink or snack at their cafe you will find the cafe volunteers in charge; and the senior staff will also usually be in evidence. Do introduce yourself. The Centre Director is the indomitable Simon Roach who joined us after a career with Barnado's and has been doing great things to continue to develop the Centre. The Adult Programmes Manager is our own Sarah Chapman, who bubbles over with great ideas for activities and the promotion of the Centre. Our work with the Youth Club is led by Iain Clarke, who is highly experienced in working with young people to keep them safe and encourage their personal development, managing a group of sessional workers. The top team are supported by three very committed and long standing members of staff, who are all members of the community that the Centre serves. Lisa Green is our finance manager, Vanessa Willis works both with younger children and the elders, and Emma Raxworthy looks after the toddlers and a range of admin tasks. And very importantly the Centre has a great band of volunteers who offer their time and effort to help manage all the activities and the garden. CCP sends its grateful thanks to the volunteers from St Mary's who are part of this team.
